Man charged with unlawful possession of illicit drug denied bail

A man charged with a count of unlawful possession of illicit drugs appeared at the Nausori Magistrates' Court today (11.05.16) before Resident Magistrate Chaitanya Lakshman.

Rakesh Charan was allegedly found in possession of methamphetamines worth $46,000 at his residence on Monday (09.05.16).

The State informed the Court that the accused has other pending cases in which he is charged with similar offences.

The State objected to bail on the grounds that the accused has re-offended whilst on bail.

The matter has been adjourned to 20 May 2016 for the matter to be called in the High Court.

The accused has been remanded in custody.
