

ODPP MEDIA UPDATE

Man gets life imprisonment for Murder

A 22 year old man convicted of murder has been sentenced to life imprisonment by the Suva High Court today (14.07.16).

Livai Ratabua appeared before Justice Salesi Temo for the murder of Maciu Bakani.

The incident took place in January 2013 at Lautoka in the Western Division.

The victim died as a result of Livai Ratabua repeatedly stomping and kicking his head after an altercation following a binge drinking session.

Justice Temo sentenced Livai Ratabua to the mandatory sentence for murder of life imprisonment and set a minimum term of 15 years to be served before he is eligible to apply for release.

-Ends-