China Railway fined $10,000

The Nausori Magistrates' Court has fined the China Railway First Group (Fiji) Limited for breaching the Environment Management Act 2005.

The company was charged with one count of undertaking unauthorised developments for constructing an asphalt plant and access road at Davuilevu, Nausori without an approved Environment Impact Assessment Report.

Magistrate Shageeth Somaratne convicted and sentenced the company on 27 July 2018 to a fine of $10,000 for undertaking unauthorised developments.
