Three Charged with Sedition and Inciting Communal Antagonism

The Director of Public Prosecutions, Mr Christopher Pryde, has charged another three people with sedition contrary to section 67 (1) (b) and with inciting communal antagonism, contrary to section 65 (1) (b) of the Crimes Decree 2009.

The three were produced at the Lautoka Magistrates' Court today (10.8.15).

The three people charged are Timoci Nagata, Pita Camaimoala Vakatawa and Saimoni Nacolawa.

Mr Pryde said, "This matter is a separate matter and is not related to the alleged rebel group from Ra that was charged with sedition last month."

The State asked for all three to be remanded in custody due to the seriousness of the charges and the ongoing police investigations. The court however granted bail on conditions that they each provided two sureties on a bond of $1000.00 each, not to reoffend, and not to change their addresses.

Matter has been adjourned to 17 August 2015.
