Bailiff Charged with Criminal Trespass and Damaging Property

The Director of Public Prosecutions, Mr Christopher Pryde, has sanctioned charges against a bailiff as a result of her attempts to enforce a court order.

Timaleti Adivainakece has been charged with criminal trespass and damaging property as a result of acting without lawful authority when she entered into a house and tried to evict the tenant. In the process she damaged the tenant's property when she moved the tenant's property outside during the attempted eviction.

Other parties acting in support of the bailiff have not been charged.

The case will be called for first mention on 26 February 2020 at the Nausori Magistrates' Court.
