Full Court of Appeal to hear Amadea Appeal Matter next week

The interim stay of execution granted to Millemarin Investments Ltd of the order in the High Court registering the US warrant to seize the Amadea was called for mention in the Court of Appeal this morning (12.5.22).

On 6th May 2022, the Suva High Court refused an application by Millemarin Investments Ltd for an interim stay of execution of the court's order granted earlier (3.5.22) to the Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP).

On the same day (6.5.22) however, the Court of Appeal granted Millemarin Investments Ltd an ex parte application staying the High Court's orders.

The Court of Appeal declined to conduct a hearing on the stay and instead ordered the stay to continue until next week Wednesday (18.5.22) when a full bench of the Court of Appeal would hear the substantive appeal filed by Millemarin Investments Ltd against the decision of the High Court registering the US warrant.
